Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Robert D. "Bob" Gunderson has been a life-time resident of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Bob received his education in the Gayville-Yankton area; and,

WHEREAS, Bob has faithfully served the citizens of South Dakota with the Division of Emergency and Disaster Service over twenty-three years; and,

WHEREAS, Bob has been the director of the division since 1981; and,

WHEREAS, Bob answered his nation's call to service and served in the South Dakota National Guard in Alaska during the Korean conflict and the lower forty-eight states, retiring after over thirty-four years of service as a Colonel; and,

WHEREAS, Bob has devoted long hours in community service organizations; and,

WHEREAS, Bob has been recognized for his outstanding accomplishments in the field of emergency management; and,

WHEREAS, Bob is retiring from state government on March 30, 1990; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 30, 1990, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
